

AGENDA
ACE Spring Regional Institute
Tompkins Cortland Community College (TC3)
Saturday, April 20, 2013
9:00 am to 11:30 am

Note: Because there will be no Keynote speaker, The first workshop will begin at 9:00 am Sharp.

TC3's Regional Institute will give both students and parents the opportunity to hear college faculty discuss various career options in their field of expertise.

IMPORTANT:

There will be TWO workshops PER person.

When you register please choose ONE workshop from EACH session for EACH person attending.

8:30-8:55 am: Registration/Check-in: In the lobby of the MAIN BUILDING

9:00 am (SHARP) -10:10 am SESSION ONE: (Choose ONE per person from this set):

1-A. Field of Education

Thinking of a career in teaching, whether it be elementary or secondary?

Dr. Marley Barduhn, Assistant Provost for Teacher Education - SUNY Cortland

1-B. Field of Communications

Thinking of a career in communications whether it be journalism, broadcasting, media relations?

James A. Rada, Ph.D. Associate Professor, Park School of Communications - Ithaca College

1-C. Field of Technology and Engineering

Thinking of a career in the engineering field that employs modern technologies?

William Kleitz, Professor, Electrical Technology - Tompkins Cortland Community College

1-D. Undeclared Major

Not sure of a career field or what you may want as a major? Come to this workshop to hear about courses and expectations when you are an undeclared major.

Abby Thomas, Director and Cheryl Hines, Advisor; Advisement and Transition Office -SUNY Cortland

10:20-11:30 am SESSION TWO: (Choose ONE per person from this set):

2-A. Field of Information Technologies

Thinking of a career in software development; Information Technologies, database administration, networking, etc.?

Jay Hulsander, Senior Software Developer - Cornell University

2-B. Field of Health and Health Related Occupations

Thinking of a career in health related fields such as nutrition, nursing, home care, etc?

Julie Boles, Asst. Professor & Coordinator, Dept. of Health Promotion & Phys. Edu. - Ithaca College

2-C. Field of Fitness and Sport Management

Thinking of a career involving athletics and/or sports management.

Cory Russell, Graduate Assistant for Fitness, - SUNY Cortland.

2-D. Field of Modern Languages

Thinking of a career involving languages: translator, interpreter, language teacher or linguist?

Maria Di Francesco, Associate Professor of Modern Languages and Literature – Ithaca College.

11:30 am WRAP-UP AND EVALUATIONS

After your LAST workshop, please take time to fill out your EVALUATION sheet.