IMPORTANT NOTES:

Undergraduate students may enroll in 500 level graduate courses only. Courses at the 600 level are restricted to graduate students (those who have earned a bachelor's degree).

Students cannot take more than nine SUNY Cortland graduate credits prior to admission to a graduate degree program.

Students are not permitted to take any coursework during field work or student teaching. If your final semester involves field work or student teaching, you may take 500 level courses for graduate credit during the preceding semester.

Graduate credits earned in this way may or may not be transferable toward meeting the requirements for a master's degree at other colleges and universities.

Unless a student is matriculated into a graduate degree program, they cannot receive financial aid to cover the costs of the graduate courses.

All requirements for a graduate degree must be completed within five (5) years of first enrollment in courses required for the degree.
