Should I cheat on an exam or assignment? Look the other way when I see someone being bullied? Spread negative things about people through texting, Facebook, gossip, etc.? Go to a party that I know my parents wouldn’t approve of? Engage in risky behavior (sex, drugs, drinking)? Would my action pass these tests:

1. BEST SELF TEST: Does this action represent my "best self"? Does it reflect the kind of person I want to be?

2. UNIVERSAL ETHICAL VALUES TEST: Does this action violate any ethical values—such as integrity, respect, fairness, or kindness—that all people should live by?

3. CONSEQUENCES TEST: Will this have negative consequences—hurtful to someone else or myself—that I will come to regret?

4. CONSCIENCE TEST: Does this go against what my conscience tells me is right? If I do this, will I feel guilty or lose self-respect?

5. PARENT/TEACHER/COACH TEST: If I were to ask my parents, teachers, coaches, or any other adults I respect, would they approve of my doing this?

6. GOLDEN RULE (REVERSIBILITY) TEST: Would I want someone to do this to me?

7. WHAT-IF-EVERYBODY-DID-THIS TEST: Would I want to live in a world where everybody did this (lied, cheated, stole, disrespected or used others, etc.)?

8. TRUTH TEST: Am I telling the whole truth and nothing but the truth—no lies, no omissions, and no half-truths?

9. INTERNET TEST: Would I want this made public through Facebook, YouTube, texting, etc., and seen by my teachers, parents, employers, or future spouse?

10. RELIGION TEST: If I have religious beliefs, what do they teach about whether this action is right or wrong?

© 2011 excellence & ethics, Center for the 4th and 5th Rs; www.cortland.edu/character. May be copied without permission. Adapted from Thomas Lickona’s Character Matters. 