Alfred Watts earned degrees from both Cornell and Howard University. His nationally acclaimed seminar is engaging, informative and inspiring. He teaches students the skills to achieve success and encourages them to live on the level of their dreams and desires.

Quotes from Ithaca Students:

- "I now have the insight of becoming someone. I thank you so very much for this seminar."
- "A personal goal I have is to stay in my honors classes and not drop it because it's too hard."
- "My personal goal is to become a lawyer and later after that, a senior partner of my own firm."
- "Telling us that we can dream about what we want to do was the most useful part for me."
- "An academic and personal goal I have is to not drop out of school."

Path of Success is presented by the Village at Ithaca, with funding support from the Tompkins Trust Company and Gannett Foundation.
