National Non-Traditional Students' Week

November 1-7, 2009

Sunday, 11/1

Sweeney Todd—the Demon Barber of Fleet Street, 2 p.m.

See the last performance of this musical thrilled at SUNY Cortland. Tickets can be purchased at Jodi's Hallmark or at the door prior to performance. Dowd Fine Arts Building Theatre

Monday, 11/2

"How Can We Help?" - Information/Services Fair, 1:30-3 p.m.

Stop by at any time to talk to representatives from different offices on campus and get information about the services they provide. Offices include: Counseling Center, Academic Achievement and Support Program (ASAP), Health Services, Disabilities Services, Recreation Sports, Transfer Credit Services, Childcare Center, University Police, and Financial Advisement. Corey Union Fireplace Lounge

Tuesday, 11/3

Non-Trads: "I'm Steering This Ship, But How Do I Stay Afloat?", 10:15 a.m.

Join Steve Smith, from our Counseling Center and Cathy Smith, from Health Promotion, as well as other non-traditional students for an informal chat session. You know what direction you are heading—graduation—but how do you get through all of the rough spots? Coffee and treats will be provided. Non-Traditional Students' Lounge, Corey Union 201-203

Social Gathering for Non-Trads, 5 p.m.

Get together with other non-traditional students for an informal social gathering at Garcia's Mexican Restaurant, Route 13, Cortland (across from Wal-Mart). Please note: each person is responsible for their own purchase.

Wednesday, 11/4

Non-Trads: Pizza and Wing Party, 12-2 p.m.

Enjoy a free pizza and wing lunch. Meet other non-trads. Non-Traditional Students' Lounge, Corey Union 201-203

Thursday, 11/5

Scholarships for Non-Traditional Students, 10:15-11:15 a.m.

Beth Langhans, Financial Advisement, will present information about the scholarship application process and scholarships available for non-traditional students. Non-Traditional Students' Lounge, Corey Union 201-203

Friday, 11/6

"Are You Ready for Registration?": Advisement & Registration Q & A Session, 9-10 a.m.

Stop by the Non-Traditional Students Lounge with any advisement and registration questions you have. Advisors from the Advisement and Transition office will be available to help you. Non-Traditional Students' Lounge, Corey Union 201-203

Non-Traditional Students' Organization Meeting (NTSO), 10 a.m.

Join us for our next club meeting. Help to prepare for spring events and get to know other non-traditional students. Non-Traditional Students' Lounge, Corey Union 201-203

Saturday, 11/7

Family Event: Children's Museum—Chinese Dumplings and Technology, 10 a.m.—1 p.m.

Share Chinese dumplings and learn the latest cutting-edge technology, Web 2.0, to make a family web site in this fun event for parents and their young children. O'Heron Newman Hall (ground floor), 8 Calvert St., Cortland.

All Week

Celebrate-a-Non-Trad! Campaign—Recognize an outstanding non-traditional student this week!

Contact Cheryl Hines at cheryl.hines@cortland.edu to receive a form.

NTSO's Soda Can Tab Drive— Save your soda can tabs, drop them off at the Non-Traditional Students' Lounge or the Advisement and Transition office. Soda can tabs will be collected and donated to the Ronald McDonald House of Central New York.

Relay for Life Team—Sign up for the Non-Traditional Students' Relay for Life team and receive a free "You Know You're a Non-Trad When..." t-shirt! Help our team raise funds for the American Cancer Society. Join us at the relay. The NTSO will be hosting a massage booth and the Pantene Beautiful Lengths program. Both programs will benefit the American Cancer Society. Join our team here: http://main.acsevents.org/site/TR/RelayForLife/RFLFY10EA?pg=team&fr_id=20689&team_id=557782
