Located at the Interfaith Center, we invite you to participate in any of the following activities:

Sunday at 9 PM - Study Break
Join us for a break from your studying. We might have a discussion or we might play games or we might just hang out and have pizza. It's a chance for you to take a break and be with friends who are also interested in defining their faith, discussing life's meaning, working toward social justice and being involved in meaningful work to help others on the planet. (due to Labor Day Weekend, we will not meet on September 2)

Monday at Noon - Bible Study for Faculty & Staff
If you are interested in exploring the Bible, we are about to begin studying the Psalms. Email vicki.johnson@cortland.edu to share your interest, and join us as we consider the context, intent and meaning of each section.

Wednesday at 12:05 - Chapel
We'll gather for 30 minutes of worship, which will include singing, consideration of holy writing, and prayers for our entire community. The format is Protestant. Each month, we will enjoy another installment of This I Believe - as someone from the campus shares the core values that guide his/her life. If you have a class, slip in late or depart a little early. Our community of faith includes students, faculty and staff.

Thursday, 4:30 - 6:30 - Stuff that Matters
We cook, eat and clean up as we talk about the 'stuff that matters' to the people who are present. If you are looking for a circle of thoughtful friends, stop by. The "Interfaith Crew" is eager to meet you. By the way, the meal is free!

Friday at 1 PM - Al-Jummah (Friday) prayers
For nearly 3 decades, the SUNY Cortland Islamic Congregation has gathered for prayers. If you are Muslim, you are welcome to attend.

If you are interested, we hope you will print this list. It will be published again at the start of next semester.

Interested in something that is not listed here? Contact vicki.johnson@cortland.edu and share your ideas!

Finally, if you are looking for information about other faith or secular communities (Jewish, Catholic, Secularist, etc.), we can help you make some connections. We hope to provide you with the resources you need in order to tend to your spiritual wellness while at SUNY Cortland.

Peace, Salaam, Shalom!
