New and Combined Databases

Over the summer, we’ve had several additions to our database offerings. These databases cover a wide variety of topics, and are all accessible in MyRedDragon’s Library Tab.

New databases:

- Databases from NOVELny: Diversity Studies, General Science, Kids InfoBits, Pop Culture, World History and many more!
- PsycARTICLES: behavioral science, education, nursing, business, neuroscience...
- GeoScienceWorld: geosciences

If your favorite database seems to be missing, check the list below. A few of them have merged, after the joining of the providers EBSCO and HW Wilson. This means you can find all of the content from these databases in one place!

Databases with combined content:

- Education Source replaces: Education Full Text (HW Wilson) and Education Research Complete
- Humanities Source replaces: Humanities Full Text (HW Wilson) and Humanities International Complete
Collection Shift: It’s Not Been Quiet at the Library

During the summer months, library staff have integrated several collections throughout the library. The most exciting change creates more open study space on the third floor (north wing) where the current print journals were located. The current journals were integrated into the main journal collection, a move which not only streamlines access to print journals from two locations to one.

The “Current Interest” collection, formerly located on the second floor between the towers has been integrated into the main book collection (south tower) in order to make room for “New Books” and print newspapers.

New Research Help Station

Looking for research help, including using the catalog and databases? Reference (aka Research Assistance) has a new name and a new location! Librarians are now available at the Research Help station on the left side of the Information Resources Support Center (IRSC) in the lobby.

The new location will be assessed in October, so please let us know what you think. To give feedback, please feel free to call the desk at ext. 2590, stop by in person, or complete our online feedback form

We hope to see you soon!

New This Fall! Lunch and Learn at the Library

This fall, the library is offering a series of workshop sessions on myRedDragon and Blackboard. Navigating Blackboard or myRedDragon can be a challenge for new students. So, encourage them to come to a Lunch and Learn workshop. Refreshments will be available and students can enter a raffle to win a WEPA printing card worth $5. Two cards will be raffled per workshop.

STUDENTS NEED TO SIGN UP AT THE IRSC (MAIN DESK) 1ST FLOOR OF THE LIBRARY or visit:

myRedDragon: Students will learn about finding tutorials, software on campus, setting up a password profile, and more!

Thurs. Sept. 12, 12:00-12:45 / Wed. Oct. 9, 12:30-1:15

Blackboard: Students will learn how to access grades, create a discussion thread, upload an assignment, and much more!

Thurs. Sept. 19, 12:00-12:45 / Thurs. Sept 19, 5-6pm / Thurs. Oct 10, 12:00-12:45

Teaching Materials Center (TMC)

Get inspired at the TMC’s Inspiration Station this fall!

The TMC has always been the go-to place for education resources, whether it’s a book or a hands-on kit. Now, it’s also the place to find classroom craft materials! More updates about the new Station will be forthcoming.

TMC Outside the Box provides updates on what’s new in the Teaching Materials Center, as well as posts relating to education. There’s something of interest for teachers of all grade levels and subject areas, from K-12.
