

Dear COR 101 Student,

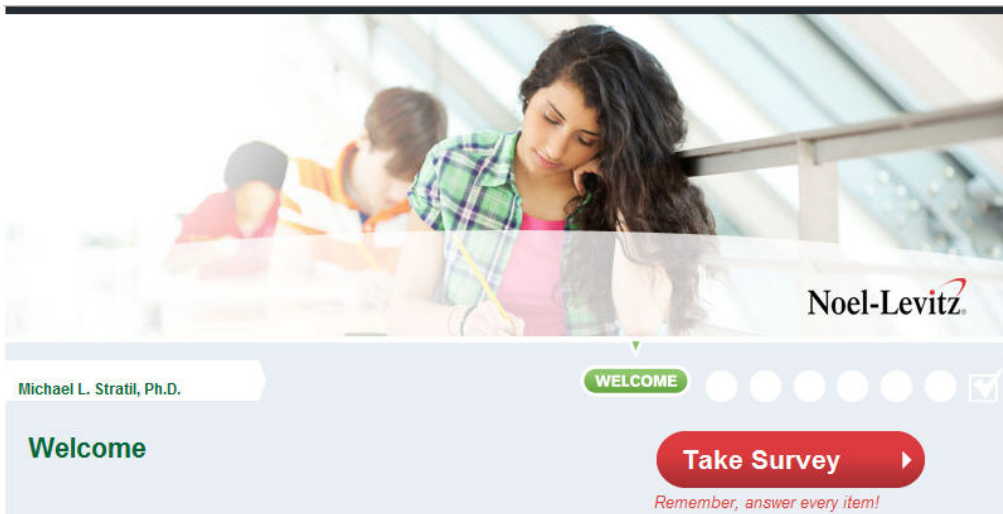

We recognize all students have different ways of learning and achieving success. To identify areas where we can connect you with programs and services that may interest you, we ask you complete the College Student Inventory (CSI™) as a requirement for COR 101.

Please complete the CSI™ online before Wednesday, September 27 at Midnight. You should also print (or save) a copy of your results immediately after you take the inventory.

- 1) To access the CSI™, type the following URL into your browser:

<https://studentsurvey.noellevitz.com/SUNYCortland/COR101-2017CSI>

- 2) Click “Open Survey” to open into a new browser.
- 3) At the Welcome screen, click on “TAKE SURVEY”. You will be asked to input your student information. Then click “BEGIN SURVEY”.

If you encounter technical problems while completing the survey, try logging back in and retake the survey again. You should be brought back to where you left off. Contact your COR Instructor or TA if you are unable to complete the survey after two attempts. Sometimes you may need to use a different computer or browser.

- 4) Complete, then print (or save) inventory immediately after taking but definitely before Wednesday, September 27 (or the deadline given by your instructor). You may have to move your mouse to the bottom of the screen to see the print/save options.
- 5) The last question on the inventory asks you to authorize Cortland to share results. We hope you answer “Yes” in order to serve you better. Thanks!
- 6) When reviewing your report, please use the information on the back of this page to help assess your results. You are encouraged to call or stop by the office(s) for assistance. Do not forget to look at the positive information offered in the report as there is no right or wrong answers.

Thank you for responding to this important invitation.

Resource List for CSI Results

We hope the information from the CSI report is helpful as you assess the results. Below are offices you can contact for support.

- Academic Motivation – If one or more of your CSI scales is low for the following categories, contact the respective support office(s):
  - Study Habits                                      Academic Support and Achievement Program (ASAP)
  - Intellectual Interests                            Academic Advisor, ASAP, Campus Activities, Professor
  - Verbal Confidence                                ASAP, Counseling Center, Disability Services, Professor
  - Desire to Finish College                        Academic Advisor, ASAP, Counseling Center, Professor
  - Attitude Toward Educators                    ASAP, Counseling Center, Professor

- General Coping - If one or more of your CSI scales is low for the following categories, contact the respective support office(s):
  - Sociability                                        Campus Activities, Recreational Sports, Counseling Center, Multicultural Life and Diversity, Residence Life and Housing
  - Family Emotional Support                      Counseling Center
  - Opinion Tolerance                                Advisor, Counseling Center, Multicultural Life and Diversity, Professor
  - Career Closure                                    Career Services, Advisor, Professor
  - Sense of Financial Security                      Financial Aid – Scholarships

- Receptivity to Support Services – If you scored low in these categories, this does not necessarily mean you need assistance, the score shows how receptive you are to receiving help from support service areas. So if your score has a high level of receptivity, it means you are open and receptive to receiving assistance from support services.
