PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Join one of the largest academic departments on campus while enjoying small classes and the opportunity to work closely with professors. Course topics span young adult literature, science fiction, creative writing and film analysis. Examine marginalized voices, historical documents and new media genres that rely on the written word.

HANDS-ON OUTLETS

Seize a rare opportunity to serve as an editor for Hoxie Gorge Review, SUNY Cortland's national creative writing journal, or publish in the Crystallize Review, an online journal of distinctive creative writing. Join student organizations that include the Cortland Writers Association, English Club and Sigma Tau Delta, the international honor society for English students.

4+1 OPPORTUNITY

Cortland offers an accelerated program for undergraduates who major in English or professional writing, allowing them to complete the requirements for a B.A. and M.A. at Cortland in five years. Alumni also have gone on to graduate programs at Harvard University, New York University and Tufts University.
