

POLITICAL SCIENCE

DEPARTMENT

MAJORS

ADOLESCENCE EDUCATION: SOCIAL STUDIES AND POLITICAL SCIENCE

POLITICAL SCIENCE

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION AND PUBLIC POLICY

CAREER POTENTIAL

Areas of opportunity:

Graduate school

Government

Law enforcement

Law school

Public administration (MPA programs) in policy areas that include economics,
health and science

Teaching

→ Internships are offered in Washington, D.C., in places such as the U.S. Congress, Supreme Court or the National Institutes of Health; state or local government departments and agencies; and district attorney's offices and law settings.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

SUNY Cortland's curriculum covers topics spanning law, American and international political systems, environmental policy, public administration and even special courses on the politics behind race and gun policy.

LAW AND JUSTICE PATHWAYS

Advisement for law school includes LSAT preparation and activities such as Moot Court, which offers course credit and practical experience in a court setting. Law School Day brings students to Cornell University, where they meet law school representatives from across the nation. Sample course titles are Constitutional Law, the Criminal Justice System and International Law.

LEARN FROM THE EXPERTS

Professors include a pre-law advisor who is one of the nation's top scholars on the U.S. Supreme Court as well as a nationally respected voices on political economy, comparative politics and labor migration.

By the numbers

4+1

opportunity for a B.A. in political science from SUNY Cortland and
M.P.A. from Binghamton University
→ Motivated students can earn both degrees in five years.

LEARN MORE

Political Science Department
Moffett Center, Room 202
607-753-4105

cortland.edu/polsci