

ADVISEMENT AND TRANSITION

OFFICE OVERVIEW

Advisement and Transition helps you adjust to college and guides you through the academic advising and registration process at SUNY Cortland. Staff members can assist with planning courses, choosing a major, navigating university policies and connecting with campus resources.

Prospective students can learn more about transfer course planning, credit evaluation and course equivalency.

Advisement and Transition

→ cortland.edu/advisement

Orientation

→ cortland.edu/orientation

Transfer Credit Services

→ cortland.edu/transfer-credit

SERVICES

ACADEMIC ADVISING

Provides professional advising for undeclared students; answers questions for all students on choosing a major, selecting courses, degree planning and academic challenges

COR 101: THE CORTLAND EXPERIENCE

A required one-credit seminar designed to help first-time college students make connections and learn about campus resources

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION

A program students attend prior to their first semester that introduces services and strategies vital to their successful transition

TRANSFER CREDIT SERVICES

Evaluates credits for incoming students and approves coursework that current students take at other colleges during summer and winter

STARFISH

An online tool that offers early and ongoing feedback regarding academic progress

STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

Specific programming and resources for graduate, non-traditional and transfer students

By the numbers

50+

COR 101 sections offered

→ This graded, one-credit class groups first-year students by major and introduces them to academic and campus life at SUNY Cortland.

LEARN MORE

Advisement and Transition

Memorial Library, Room A-111

607-753-4726

advisement@cortland.edu

cortland.edu/advisement