

MODERN LANGUAGES

DEPARTMENT

MAJORS

ADOLESCENCE EDUCATION: FRENCH (7-12)

ADOLESCENCE EDUCATION: SPANISH (7-12)

ADOLESCENCE EDUCATION: FRENCH AND SPANISH (7-12)

FRENCH

SPANISH

TEACHING ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE (GRADES K-12)

CAREER POTENTIAL

Areas of opportunity:

English as a second language and foreign language education
International business
Teaching English as a second language abroad
Tourism and hospitality
Translation

→ Potential minors include French, Spanish and teaching English as a second language.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

SUNY Cortland's national reputation in education laid the foundation for several strong majors related to teaching and appreciating language. The Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) program features a robust curriculum integrating methodology, first and second language acquisition, English grammar and linguistics, bilingual and multicultural education, testing and assessment. Majors in French and Spanish have a strong focus on language, communication and culture.

PREPARATION FOR THE CLASSROOM

Three adolescence education programs prepare students to teach in various settings, focusing on grades 7 to 12 New York state's public schools. Adolescence education majors are eligible for kindergarten to grade 6 extension by taking ICC 324: Foreign Language for the Elementary School.

DEVELOP A LOVE FOR LANGUAGES

Additional course options include American Sign Language, Chinese, French, German, Italian and Spanish.

By the numbers

30

years maintaining the Second Language Educators Conference at Cortland

→ This free event offers a professional development platform for language teachers and teachers in training.

LEARN MORE

Modern Languages Department
Old Main, Room 228-C
607-753-4303

cortland.edu/modern-languages