

To All Area FL and TESOL/ENL Colleagues
The Virginia Levine Second Language Educators Conference: A Conference for Second Language Teachers and Teachers In Training
Saturday, September 21st, 2024
Sperry Center on the SUNY Cortland Campus
8:15 a.m. to 1:15 p.m.

Program Theme:
“Building Bridges Through Language Education”

Workshop topics:

- Look Them in the Eyes and Say Hello
- Keeping it Authentic: Strategies and Considerations
- United States and Latin America, Two Diverse Societies United through Language, Art, Advocacy and History
- Fostering Curiosity, Connections, and Community in Language Classrooms
- Incorporating Cultural Education into the World Language Classroom
- Building Bridges by Building Background
- Language Transfer Workshop: Linguistically Responsive Strategies for Teachers
- Harnessing AI for Process Writing in EFL/ESL Classrooms: Insights and Implementation Strategies
- Developing Connections among Students while Exploring Online Resources
- Vive le STEM en Cours de Français

Keynote Speaker: Mary Holmes
NYSAFLT Past President and MAFLA member

The conference is FREE but REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED.

Please REGISTER ONLINE at the Modern Languages Department webpage:

<http://www2.cortland.edu/departments/modern-languages/second-language-educators-conference.dot>

For further information:

E-mail: dana.smith@cortland.edu

Patricia Martínez de la Vega Mansilla, Conference Coordinator
Modern Languages Department, SUNY Cortland

Hosted by: Modern Languages Department, SUNY Cortland

Co-sponsored by: Cortland Auxiliary Services (CAS)
International Programs Office, SUNY Cortland
Clark Center for Global Engagement, SUNY Cortland
Modern Languages Department, SUNY Cortland

