To nominate an officer, advisor, coach or a Sport Club, please email Matthew Nuesell (mattthew.nuesell@cortland.edu) with a written explanation that describes why you believe the person/club you are nominating is deserving of the award. Explanations may be submitted in essay or bullet format.

2013-2014 Recipients

Sport Club of the Year
Cheerleading

Coach of the Year
Trevor Bauer,
Men’s Ice Hockey

Male Officer of the Year
Joseph Pitti,
Men’s Rugby

Female Officer of the Year
Laura Johansson,
Equestrian

Most Improved Sport Club
Wrestling

Community Service Award
Equestrian

Advisor of the Year
Mr. Gordon Valentine,
Field Hockey

Deadline: Friday, April 3, 5:00 PM
Sport Club Leadership Awards

Officer of the Year Criteria
- Checks in with Sport Club staff frequently throughout the year
- Keeps in good contact with other officers and delegates responsibility
- Turns in required paperwork on time
- Attends Sport Club Board meetings with enthusiasm and attentiveness
- Very organized, responsible, and consistent in handling club matters
- Takes initiative to check up on requests and makes event arrangements
- Asks for clarification about new policies and procedures
- Takes ownership in the club and its success

Advisor of the Year Criteria
- Advises the club by providing guidance, leadership, and structure
- Available during the development of plans and programs for the club, to provide expertise and mature judgment, and to help insure that activities and undertakings of the club are sound and favorably reflect on the Sport Club Program and University

Sport Club of the Year Criteria
- Takes on an additional fundraising projects
- Arranges large-scale trips or events
- Consists of committed, organized, and responsible officers
- Consists of committed, supportive club members
- Plans events in a timely manner and runs them efficiently
- Practices and meetings attended by club members without cancellations
- Shows flexibility in facility schedule changes
- Club members demonstrate teamwork and camaraderie
- Maintains good records of finances and equipment
- Promotes membership and inclusion

Community Service Award Criteria
- Club has demonstrated the most willingness to perform community service activities, organize charitable events that benefit local or national causes, or volunteered their time and energy in support of the campus and local community

Most Improved Sport Club Criteria
- Club shows noticeable and considerable improvement in the administration, organization, and success of the club.

Coach of the Year Criteria
- Assists the club’s officers in scheduling practices and games
- Present at all practices and games/events
- Helps insure good sportsmanship on and off the field
- Promotes and helps enforce the Sport Club Policies, Procedures and Code of Conduct