

Web Registration Error Messages

CLASS RESTRICTION - the course is restricted to a particular class year (FR: 0-25.5; SO: 26-56; JR: 56.5-89.5; SR: 90+). You must have the minimum credit totals by class to be permitted to register for the course.

CLOSED SECTION - the section is full. Register for another section or course. Contact the department offering the course for further information on seat availability.

DUPLICATE COURSE : SEE DEPT. - you have attempted to register for the same course twice. Check your CRN's, or go to the department offering the course for permission if you are trying to take multiple sections of "X29" special topics courses at the same level.

LEVEL RESTRICTION - you are an undergraduate and have attempted to register for a graduate course. A SENIOR in their last semester may take a 500-level course for GR-credit, with permission from the Associate Dean of their school. If approval is given, you must go to the Registrar's Office to register for the course. Please note: a 600-level course is for GRADUATE students only.

LECTURE / LAB MISMATCH - you have registered for a lab, or lecture section without the correct corresponding lecture, or lab section. Use the "Add Class" area to add BOTH lecture and lab sections; or the correct combination for a lecture and lab course.

MAJOR RESTRICTION - the course you have tried to register for is a 600 section, for "majors only." Check to see if there is a non-majors section. If you have recently changed your major, or have declared a minor in the content area, bring a copy of your signed change of major form to the Registrar's Office so the major-code information can be corrected. Contact the department offering the course for further information.

OVER MAXIMUM CREDIT LOAD - In Fall and Spring, undergraduates may take up to 18 credits; the Associate Dean of your school must approve a credit overload of 18.5+. Graduate students may take up to 14 credits; the Associate Dean of your school must approve an overload of 14+. If approval is given you must go to the Registrar's Office to register for the course.

PRE-REQUISITE REQUIRED - you have tried to register for a course that has a pre-requisite you have not taken. Check the college catalog or the Course Schedule and Registration Information on the Registrar's home page for the pre-requisites for a given course. Contact the department offering the course for further information.

REPEATING COURSE : SEE DEPT. - you are trying to register for a course that you have already taken, have transfer or other credit for. If you are planning to retake the course due to an unsuccessful attempt, or to improve your GPA, you need to contact the department offering the course for permission to retake the class.

SPECIAL PERMISSION NEEDED - you need to seek permission to register for a class that is a 500 section, and/or permission has not yet been processed. See the Chair of the department offering the course for permission to register for this particular class section. You may then register on the WEB, once you've received permission.

TIME CONFLICT - course times overlap, register for the course you prefer. You must see the Associate Dean for approval to register for courses that have a time conflict. If approval is given you must go to the Registrar's Office to register for the course.
