State University of New York College at Cortland

Institutional Report Supplement

This document is available online at www.cortland.edu/ncate and is a supplement to the SUNY Cortland Institutional Report (IR) prepared in January of 2004. This supplement contains links to documents that were largely unavailable in January. Most of these are updates of tables to include Spring 2004 data or summary reports from fall 2003 that were not prepared until recently. The supplement is organized under the same major heading as the full IR. The supplement is not meant to stand alone but to complement the full IR. The page numbers are from the full IR.
